

Community

Checkpoint 4

Connecting with other veterans at OSU will support your transition to campus life and ease your integration into the community.

The Veterans Lounge is a great place to start. Located in the Memorial Union on the main floor, it is a welcoming and safe space for veterans and their families to study, have a meeting, or just take a second to relax from a busy schedule.

GET INVOLVED! You are NOT alone!

Meet with the ASOSU Veterans Affairs Task Force Director or become members of the Veterans and Family Student Association

Continued improvement to veterans services are made possible through the hard work and leadership of veterans like you.

Academic Success

Checkpoint 3

Meet with an Academic Advisor within your major or program of study every term. Your advisor can refer you to academic support resources.

Academic Success Center

The center offers coaching that will assist you to stay on track with assignments, test preparation, and effective time management. The center is located in 102 Waldo Hall.

Math Help!

Consider making a visit to the Math Learning Center (MLC) for help with any stubborn math problems. The MLC is located in 108 Kidder Hall.

Disability Access Services

You may be eligible for individualized support services and accommodations that are offered through the Office of Disability Access Services. Meetings and interactions are discreet and confidential. Disability Access service is located in A200 Kerr Administration Building.

Counseling & Psychological Services

Counseling and Psychology Services (CAPS) counselors are trained in PTSD and MST therapies. They provide confidential assistance to help you deal with the issues that are sometimes faces after extreme events in our lives. Support is also available to assist you with a stressful time during the term. They are located on the 5th floor of Snell Hall.

Contact the Military and Veteran Resource Advisor if you need assistance connecting with off campus resources.
