Welcome to Beaver Nation!

Thank you for entrusting your student’s education to Oregon State University. We take this responsibility seriously and ask that you join with us as partners in providing the very best learning and living experience for your student at Oregon State. The active involvement of parents and family members has always been a hallmark of an Oregon State education, and the relationship between you and the university — jointly responsible for your student’s education — contributes to a special sense of community found nowhere else. Together, we can nurture and encourage your student to grow personally and academically.

Because you are an integral member of this partnership, we want to ensure you are informed about campus resources and contacts. This calendar contains important academic dates and deadlines, as well as support systems your student can access. Additionally, you’ll find information about great campus traditions that you can enjoy with your student like Family Weekend and Homecoming. I encourage you to look through this calendar together to prepare for the upcoming year at Oregon State University.

Sincerely,

Edward J. Ray, President

New Student Walk on the Memorial Union Quad is a Welcome Week tradition.
Located near the east end of the Valley Library, the Oregon State Bell Tower features 14 bells and plays short classical compositions throughout the day. The tower was built in 2001 thanks to a gift from the family of H. Dean Papé, a 1942 alumnus.
OSU invites your family to celebrate our students’ success with us! Experience a weekend in the life of a Beaver by walking the halls, enjoying the arts and spending quality leisure time.
