Our Mission …
Recognizing the unique and profound challenges of families whose lives and homes have been touched by combat and service-related trauma, Branches of Valor, seeks to rekindle hope by providing a safe, relaxing environment through weekend getaways, linking them with practical resources, supportive connections and spiritual solutions.

Our Vision …
★ Facilitate physical, emotional, psychological and spiritual healing.
★ Help families feel nurtured, safe and comfortable.
★ Offer a variety of motivational speakers and workshops that present practical insights into the challenges they face.
★ Provide the time they need to begin constructing plans that would bring wholeness and health for themselves and their families.
★ Inspire and motivate them to get back into life by engaging in compassionate service as a part of their healing.
★ Honor them for their service and sacrifice.
★ Laugh a lot and have fun!

How You Can Help …
By partnering with Branches of Valor, you too recognize the challenges facing those who serve our country and our communities— those whose lives and homes have been touched by combat and service-related trauma. Your charitable gift can bring strength and stability back into their homes, reintegrate them into their communities and prepare them to help others. Please help us to help them by providing financially towards the operating expenses, scholarships or material goods for the retreat.
