SPIRITUAL LIFE @ OSU

What is Spiritual Life @ OSU?

Spiritual Life @ OSU is an association of religious, spiritual, and philosophical advisors from various faith traditions and expressions. In cooperation with the Office of the Dean of Students, we seek to encourage and cultivate spiritual exploration, discovery, and development by connecting students with religious, spiritual, and philosophical clubs or organizations on campus and in the community that align with their desired path. Our hope is to help foster a deepening sense of meaning and purpose.

How do I get involved with a religious or spiritual organization?

Explore the club webpages and connect with organizations that align with your interests. Each organization has a leader or advisor of the group that can help you learn how to engage with the organization and get involved.

You can also establish a new spiritual or religious student organization here:
