GO BEAVS! GO GREEK!

2023-2024

WELCOME TO...

Member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.

Your success is our success and we are committed to you being successful at OSU.

We are excited you chose to be a part of Beaver Nation. As a member of the OSU community, you will have the opportunity to explore your educational passions and interests as you discover your major of study and extracurricular activities that complement your out of class experiences. I encourage you to take advantage of internships, research opportunities, leadership positions, and service projects as these experiences will support your academic progress and development as a student and beyond when you graduate from OSU.

As your Dean of Students, I welcome you to connect with our office. The Office of the Dean of Students provides educational and developmental opportunities to help students make informed decisions about your success. Our team, along with the entire Division of Student Affairs, is ready to assist you as you navigate the university. We partner with faculty, staff, parents, and community members in our effort to be a deliberate community where all members find commonalities amongst each other and are committed and responsible for upholding our obligations to each other and our role in advancing student success. You will find our community to be open, caring, assuming of positive intent, and valuing curiosity & learning. We hope you will engage with us in asking questions and sharing your ideas and experiences as we continue to be aware of the impact we want to have on each other.

As an international public research university with students from all over the world, we are Dam Proud that you chose to pursue your education at Oregon State University! I wish you the best of luck during your time here and look forward to celebrating your successes. Go Beavs!

Enthusiastically,

Dr. Kevin A. Dougherty
Senior Associate Vice Provost & Dean Of Students

...OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY

FIND YOUR PLACE IN OUR COMMUNITY

Joining a fraternity or sorority can be one of the best ways to find your “home away from home” at Oregon State and make a large campus feel much smaller. There are 48 chapters on campus that are a member of one of five communities, the Collective Greek Council (CGC), Interfraternity Council (IFC), the National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC), the Panhellenic Council (PHC), or the Multicultural Greek Council (MGC). We believe there is a place for everyone in our diverse community of around 2,500 students. Fraternities and sororities have a rich history at OSU and have been on campus for over 141 years. The first national organization, Alpha Tau Omega, was established on campus in 1882.

Our community shares several core principles: Friendship, Scholarship, Leadership, Inclusivity, Philanthropy and Service. The community shared vision statement is: “United by a common bond, we are a diverse community dedicated to scholarship, leadership and service.” Our members live these values each day and strive toward this vision in the events and programs they plan and in the membership experiences our chapters offer.

Membership in a fraternity or sorority not only allows you to get more involved at OSU, but also within the local Corvallis community. Studies show that students who are engaged with student organizations, like fraternities and sororities, are more successful academically and are more likely to graduate.

College is a time to build memories and gain friends that will last a lifetime. We know that college is full of choices, and we are glad you’ve made the choice to get to know our chapters. We urge you to get to know our organizations for yourself and make the best decision for you about which group to join.

Please take time to browse through this publication and acquaint yourself with all that fraternity and sorority life has to offer. If you’re still not sure if ‘going Greek’ is right for you, we encourage you to learn more about these organizations by checking out the fall recruitment/membership intake processes.

Once again, welcome to Oregon State University. We offer you our best wishes for every success during your time here. And get used to saying it — “Go Beavs!”

OSU Fraternity & Sorority Experience

For over a century, both OSU and fraternities & sororities have benefited from the mutual relationship shared between the community and the institution. Fraternities and sororities provide a valuable component of the undergraduate experience and complement the curricular and co-curricular aims of the University. Fraternities and sororities recognized by OSU are expected to maintain this history of positive contribution by conducting themselves in accordance with the shared values and expectations of their affiliate inter/national organizations and the University. The fraternities and sororities listed in this booklet are the only social fraternities and sororities recognized by and in good standing with Oregon State University.

A Relationship Statement is executed annually between OSU and its fraternities and sororities. This document formalizes the shared values and expectations that are instrumental in ensuring a mutually beneficial relationship between all parties.

This Relationship Statement serves as the basis for ensuring the positive presence and continued contributions of fraternities and sororities at Oregon State University, and that each is working collaboratively to enable each other to meet and exceed their individual missions and goals. To view the full text of this agreement, visit oregonstate.edu/cfsi.

The specific areas and criteria addressed in the Relationship Statement are listed below the photo.

- Leadership Development
- Academic Achievement
- Risk Reduction and Management
- Diversity and Inclusion
- Membership Development
- Campus Engagement and Community Service
- Advising and Alumni Relations
- Community Standards

FRATERNITIES & SORORITIES AT OSU SHARE SIX CORE COMMUNITY VALUES

Scholarship

Fraternities and sororities at Oregon State University strive for academic excellence. Each chapter has specific grade requirements for students to maintain active membership and provides their members with resources to promote academic success. Chapters also offer many options to help new members transition academically from high school to college, including educational programs and workshops, study hours, tutoring programs, and more. As a result, the All-Greek GPA is consistently at or above the All-Undergraduate average. Chapter GPAs are available on the CFSL website at beav.es/GPA.

Community Service

In conjunction with philanthropy, each fraternity and sorority participates in numerous community service events each year to engage with the Corvallis and surrounding communities. Last year, OSU's Fraternity and Sorority Community logged approximately 45,000 hours of community service. Commitment to civic engagement encourages growth as servant leaders and allows members to help others in the world around us.

Philanthropy

Fraternities and sororities sponsor a variety of philanthropic fundraisers that raise over $275,000 annually to support local and national nonprofit organizations. These fundraisers include athletic tournaments, haunted houses, lip sync competitions, and more.

Friendship

With a large student body at OSU, it is easy for new students to be overwhelmed with life on campus. Fraternity and sorority membership eases the transition and enriches the college experience by encouraging the development of sincere relationships within a tight-knit community of over 2,400 students. The lifelong bonds of brotherhood and sisterhood made in fraternities and sororities are unmatched by any other student organization.

Inclusivity

United by a common bond, the OSU Greek community is a diverse community that strives for inclusivity of all people regardless of age, ethnicity, race, culture, gender identity or expression, religion, disability, veteran status or sexual orientation. We hope to promote a welcoming environment for all students on campus where all members and guests feel supported and accepted.

Leadership

Developing leadership skills in all members is a fundamental goal of every organization. Fraternities and sororities offer a variety of leadership positions within their chapters and opportunities also exist in the Fraternity/Sorority Community at large. Members are also leaders on campus, currently holding leadership positions in over 260 student organizations at OSU.

NATIONAL PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL (NPHC)

The National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC), also known as the Divine 9 or D9, is the governing council for the historically African-American fraternities and sororities at OSU. NPHC chapters are inclusive, you aren't required to identify with a specific racial identity to qualify for membership.

NPHC chapters are unhoused and use the Lonnie B. Harris Black Cultural Center as a central place to meet and host events. See a map on page 35 for the location of this center.

Fraternities and sororities affiliated with the NPHC do not participate in a formal recruitment process. NPHC chapters identify new members throughout the year, engaging in a membership intake process semi-annually. If you are interested in a sorority or fraternity connected to this council, it's important to be on the lookout for their events, introduce yourself to members, and reach out to them based on information listed next their chapter profile entry. NPHC organizations typically do not accept a student for membership until the student has completed at least 12-24 units of college credit and has achieved at least a 2.5 grade point average.

For additional information on NPHC organizations, visit specific organization websites and/or research the book "Divine Nine" by Lawrence Ross.

Visit studentlife.oregonstate.edu/cfs/nphc for more information on these organizations and how to join.

Annual Community Programs

Governing Council Leadership:

Chapter members have the opportunity to hold leadership positions on one of the governing council executive boards within Fraternity & Sorority Life. These boards, comprised of students who are community members, are elected by their peers to govern and program on behalf of their community. These councils annually participate in national leadership conferences and work to improve the fraternity/sorority experience at OSU.

Leadership Development Programs:

Fraternity & Sorority Life annually hosts a variety of leadership development experiences, including two leadership retreats for members of the community. The Emerging Leadership Retreat is hosted each November for up-and-coming first and second year members, who engage in exploration of their own leadership goals. The President's Leadership Retreat is hosted in January and is an overnight weekend of community building and strategic planning for all chapter presidents and governing council officers.

Order of Omega:

Order of Omega is a national Greek Honor Society for the top 3% of fraternity men & sorority women based on the tenets of scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Order of Omega's purpose is to recognize students who have attained a high standard of leadership within the community, to bring together those members who will help shape the community and the University, and to join faculty, alumni, and students with the intent of helping and understanding one another.

& Involvement Opportunities

Stepping & Strolling:

Stepping and Strolling is an expressive dance form that was created by African American fraternities in the 1970s. It has been adopted by most culturally-based fraternal organizations through the years. NPHC and MGC members move together in a line expressing pride for their organization. In this line, members may show this pride through the use of their organization's call, sign or historical information, ritual/custom dances, etc. NPHC and MGC organizations perform at annual yardshows and competitions.

Greek Week:

Fraternities and sororities have been a part of the Oregon State University (OSU) community for over 100 years and Greek Week serves as a celebration of everything fraternity/sorority at OSU! Fraternity & Sorority members work together to plan a week of educational programs, friendly competitions and contribute to philanthropic causes. In 2023, the community came together to raise over $18,000 for Special Olympics of Oregon by participating in the Polar Plunge!

All-University Sing:

Previously known as "IFC Sing", the event originated in 1936 as a homecoming event for fraternity members at the Oregon Agricultural College. Today it is called All-University Sing, which is an annual event that chapters from the Collective Greek Council, Interfraternity Council, and Panhellenic Council traditionally participate in.

OSU Sorority Alumnus Spotlight on GAYLE FITZPATRICK '78 AOII

As a student, Gayle Fitzpatrick '78 learned far more than what was part of the classroom curriculum. Her day-to-day collegiate experience involved managing large groups and leading meetings. Team-building. Solving conflict. Balancing a budget. Fundraising. Networking on campus and interacting with the community.

These skills, valuable assets throughout her career in finance and high technology, were finely honed as a leader in OSU's Greek Community.

President of OSU's Alpha Rho chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi as an undergraduate, Fitzpatrick had a great experience — so positive that she has remained a leader in her sorority. In fact, she served two, two-year terms as AOII's International President and is currently serving her second term on AOII's Properties Board.

A member of OSU's Fraternity and Sorority Alumni & Friends group, Fitzpatrick recently made a gift establishing an endowed fund to provide leadership training for students in the Greek community — especially emerging leaders in their early years of membership. The OSU Fraternity/Sorority Community is able to annually host an institute for emerging leaders because of this generous gift.

Excerpts taken from a Fall 2017 Oregon Stater article written by Cathleen Hockman-Wert.

Fitzpatrick was recently honored for these efforts with her induction into the Oregon State Greek Hall of Fame which recognizes outstanding alumni for their achievement and contributions to the community.

A graduate in finance, Fitzpatrick has been a leader in the technology industry for over four decades. Following many years with Oracle Corporation, she recently retired from the position of group vice president of global technical support at New Relic, a software observability company.

Now living in Lake Oswego, Fitzpatrick remains closely connected to her Alpha Rho sisters, and to many other AOII members she met along the way.

"When you move to a new community, look for a job, need a place to live, who do you call? Even if you haven't met someone from another chapter, you still have the bond of being part of the same organization," she said. "There's a lot of intrinsic value. It's so much more than four years of college and hanging out and having a good time."

The Greek Community at OSU has helped me grow, both personally and professionally, in a multitude of ways. I've been able to create invaluable bonds with my sisters and members of other chapters and found many opportunities for leadership, community service, and professional development thanks to my involvement in Fraternity & Sorority life.

GREEK SPEAK

Active: A fully initiated undergraduate member of a fraternity or sorority.

Alumnus/Alumna: A member of a fraternity or sorority who has graduated from college.

Bid: A formal invitation to membership in a fraternity or sorority.

Big: An initiated member of a fraternity or sorority who serves as a mentor to a Potential/Prospective New Member, guiding them through the new member program and initiation.

Chant: A call used by members of culturally-based organizations or NPHC chapters to acknowledge or gain the attention of others; some organizations have more than one chant.

Chapter: The local collegiate membership unit of a national or international fraternity or sorority.

Collective Greek Council (CGC): The governing body for academic interest-based chapters at OSU. Currently, there are 4 sororities that make up CGC.

Crossing: Ceremony during which new members of culturally-based and historically black Greek-letter organizations become active, life-long members of their organization.

Dues: The monetary costs of membership in a fraternity or sorority that are used to fund the costs of operations, events, and other activities.

Governing Council: Peer elected executive board from the member groups within one community. Generally supports and acts as a voice for organizations within it, including being the official liaison between the university and the members of the member organizations.

Hazing: Unethical mental or physical abuse and activities that are prohibited by Oregon State University, the local and state government, and all OSU Greek councils and organizations. Please refer to the OSU Code of Student Conduct for the full definition of hazing.

Initiation: A traditional ritual or formal ceremony that brings a new member into full Greek membership.

Interfraternity Council (IFC): Peer-elected governing council for traditionally housed fraternities that currently supports 24 men's chapters at OSU.

Legacy: An immediate relative of an initiated member of a fraternity or sorority, defined slightly differently by each individual organization.

Line: The new member class of a culturally-based or historically black organization.

Little: Short for "Little Brother/Sister" – a new member who is being mentored by an older member of their organization.

Membership Intake: Term for the process by which NPHC and MGC chapters recruit, select, educate, and initiate new members of their organizations.

Multicultural Greek Council (MGC): The governing body of 3 culturally-based organization designed to unite the diverse organizations and promote multicultural awareness to the OSU community.

National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC): The governing body of the nine historically African American fraternities and sororities, also known as the "Divine Nine".

Neophyte: A new member of a culturally-based or historically black organization which usually defines that stage between the completion of new member/pledge requirements and being initiated.

New Member: An individual who has accepted a bid to join a fraternity or sorority but who has not yet been initiated; also called an associate member.

New Member Presentation: A presentation that celebrates and welcomes new members into the Multicultural Greek or NPHC Community. A general set up of a new member presentation consists of welcoming fellow Greeks, local and national chapter history, and revealing of the new member(s).

Order of Omega: A national honor society for fraternity and sorority members who maintain a GPA above the All-Greek average, have distinguished themselves as leaders in the OSU Greek community, have exemplary character, and hold either junior or senior academic standing.

Panhellenic Council (PHC): Peer-elected governing council for traditionally housed sororities that currently supports 11 women's chapters at OSU.

Philanthropy: A fundraising event hosted to raise money for a charitable organization with which the chapter or community has a relationship.

Potential New Member (PNM): A person who is interested in joining a Greek-letter organization, and will participate in intake or recruitment.

Recruitment Counselor (Gamma Chi): A neutral representative of a Panhellenic sorority who temporarily leaves her affiliation to guide and support PNMs through recruitment.

Ritual: The traditional rites and ceremonies of a fraternity or sorority; these are almost always private and known only to initiated members of a fraternal organization.

Saluting: A unique art of reciting information in a line formation. Members perform intense, in-sync, and sharp movements with greetings attributing to others, honoring accomplishments, or cherishing the cultural history, heritage, and traditions of the organization.

Stepping: Stepping is a tradition where members synchronize their moves so that they are performing their own dance moves without music. In stepping the members will clap, stomp with their feet, jump, chant (not to be confused with saluting) and create their own beat by doing so. Stepping is traditionally done by NPHC organizations, but multicultural Greeks are also known to do it.

Strolling: Also known as party walking or 'party walk', is a synchronized dance performed with music by culturally based organizations.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. What will I get from a fraternity or sorority that I would not get out of any other college organization?

Coming to college is one of the major life changes that you will go through. Joining a fraternity or sorority will help make the transition easier. Developing lifelong friendships with other chapter members helps make the campus seem smaller. For many members, these chapters become a home away from home. In addition to the brotherhood/sisterhood, every chapter is dedicated to enhancing leadership, scholarship, and philanthropy/community service.

2. How do I find the right organization for me?

The best way to find your fit is to ask current members of the organization. Recruitment events are a great way to meet people and ask questions. At the end of the day, it matters most that you find a group that you connect with and that shares similar values with you.

3. If I go through membership intake or recruitment, am I guaranteed an invitation to join a fraternity or sorority?

Just as you are looking for a perfect fit, these organizations are also looking for great individuals. Membership criteria can change from organization to organization, but all groups will have a minimum GPA requirement; some will be focusing on previous or other campus involvement, others more on community service, leadership experience, etc. The most important thing is to be your genuine self throughout the recruitment/membership intake process and the right organization for you will embrace you for who you are.

4. If I am an international student, can I join a fraternity or a sorority?

Yes, anyone who is enrolled at OSU is allowed to pursue membership through recruitment or membership intake. We welcome and encourage international students to take part in Fraternity and Sorority Life.

5. What opportunities for continued involvement are there after I graduate?

Fraternity and sorority life is a lifelong commitment with limitless opportunities. Following graduation, many organizations encourage their graduating members to join their local alumni association, as well as regional, district, or national positions and volunteer to support undergraduate members.

6. How much does it cost to join a fraternity or sorority?

During the recruitment or membership intake process, a potential member should ask members about the financial obligations and payment options. The average cost for the first term of joining an organization is usually higher due to one-time expenses and fees. For housed chapters, dues and live-in fees are usually less than the cost to live on-campus in a residence hall. On each council's page you can see a breakdown of financial costs.

7. Do I have to go to all recruitment and membership intake events? What if I can't make it an event?

The best way to find out if an organization is for you, is to attend as many of their events as possible. This will help you see if an organization is a good fit for you. However, it is up to you to attend or choose not attend recruitment events. You should never skip class to attend recruitment events. Your education always comes first, but always make an effort to let the chapter know ahead of time. Keep in mind, some organizations require you to meet certain criteria, for example attending an informational program, community service event, etc. before you will be eligible for membership.

KEY

Affiliated Housing Program (AHP): Several housed fraternities and sororities participate in the Affiliated Housing Program which makes them eligible as an exemption from the first-year live-on requirement. First year students who are interested in learning more about joining and living-in one of these homes, check out the program’s website: studentlife.oregonstate.edu/cfsl/affiliated-housing-program.

Alcohol Prohibited – alcohol is not permitted on chapter property

Alcohol Permitted – alcohol is permitted on chapter property for members who are 21 and social events* with alcohol can be hosted on chapter property see the IFC Social Policy for a full description of policies and guidelines for social events.*

BS – Bedroom Style- residents sleep in individual or shared bedrooms

Cook/Chef – An individual or meal service hired by the organization to provide meals for live-in and, depending on the chapter’s meal plan, live-out members. They work with the chapter to provide accommodations for dietary needs and sometimes assist with catering events.

House Director/ Resident Advisor- Each chapter has an individual hired by the organization to assist collegiate chapter members with accountability and the upkeep of the chapter facility. This person cannot be an undergraduate student and they must live-in the facility. All housed chapters employ a House Director/ Resident Advisor.

Laundry Free for Members – Chapters with an “X” provide members with access to laundry facilities that do not require individual payment for each load. Some chapters may include this cost in the live-in member dues.

Parking Lot – Chapters with an “X” have a parking lot or spaces designated for their members. However, this does not mean that every member is guaranteed a spot.

SP – Sleeping Porch- residents sleep in a shared sleeping space typically with bunk beds while their desk/closets are in a shared “day room.”

Special Features- Amenities reported by chapter leaderships
