The Office of the Dean of Students is recruiting for a Crisis Response Team Coordinator, who will oversee OSU Assist, a student-centric and trauma-informed crisis response program.

POSITION DUTIES

50%

PROGRAM LEADERSHIP, DEVELOPMENT, SUPERVISION, & OVERSIGHT

35%

DIRECT CRISIS SERVICE, INTERNAL & EXTERNAL PARTNERSHIP COORDINATION

15%

CAMPUSS COMMUNITY OUTREACH, ADMINISTRATIVE WORK

The Program Coordinator position is dedicated to building and coordinating the new OSU Assist program, which provides a compassionate mobile crisis response for non-life-threatening, but crisis-related scenarios such as behavioral health crises and mental health welfare checks. Anticipated salary will be $65,000 - $78,000.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS

- Master's of Social Work, Counseling, Marriage and Family Therapy, or similar degree.
- Licensed, or licensed-eligible, as a mental health professional in the state of Oregon.
- Demonstrated knowledge of trauma (acute, chronic, racial, generational, etc.) and experience in trauma-informed care.
- Two or more years of paid or unpaid experience supporting people in high need or crisis situations.
- Commitment to understanding and applying the principles of diversity, equity, and anti-oppression concepts, processes, and protocols.
- Excellent and effective verbal and written communication skills.
- Experience in crisis support and intervention, such as suicide prevention, sexual assault survivor support, crime victim advocacy work, chemical dependency, etc.
- Experience working in or with initiatives that support or engage communities of color and people traditionally underrepresented.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS

- Experience with first responder and public safety systems.
- Knowledge of structures, policies, and other systemic barriers that impact retention of under-represented students.
- Two or more years of experience in personnel or volunteer management, administrative supervision, and performance evaluation.
- Experience working with college students or individuals in a higher education setting.

HOW TO APPLY

Application information may be found at https://jobs.oregonstate.edu posting P04965UF. Posting closes December 17, 2021.

Position related inquiries may be directed to susan.barba@oregonstate.edu. This document can be made available in an alternative format upon request to support.odos@oregonstate.edu.